

Both complainant and accused No. 1 and 2 as well as their respective counsel are present. They have filed application u/sec. 147 of N.I. Act. The complainant and accused No. 1 and 2 have amicably settled for total amount of Rs. 50,000/-. The accused persons shall pay the cheque amount of Rs. 50,000/- or before 01.06.2026 to complainant. Both the parties agreed the terms of compromise and contents of application filed U/S 147 of the N.I. Act. The complainant and accused No. 1 and 2 and their respective counsel have duly affixed their signature by admitting the terms of application and they have also put their signature on the order sheet by consenting the same. Hence I pass the following ORDER Application U/s 147 of the N.I. Act is hereby allowed. The accused No.1 and 2 shall pay the agreed to pay the amount of Rs.50,000/- as agreed as per application filed U/sec 147 of N.I. Act. If the accused persons will not pay the amount as agreed, the complainant is at liberty to recover the cheque amount in accordance with law. In view of settlement between the parties, the case is hereby disposed as settled.

CC 2793/2022

SD/-
I ASCJ and JMFC., Hunsur