

CC 178/24
07/03/2026

Case called out. Complainant absent. No representation.

Case called again at 4.30 pm. No representation from complainant side.

Perused order sheet, it is noticed that, the complainant is directed to furnish the correct address of the accused.

But the complainant has not furnished the correct address of the accused.

Further, order sheet shows that, this court issued process against the accused which returned unserved for want of correct address.

The Complainant has not furnished correct address of the accused even after directions given by this court.

Hence, this court came to conclusion that, the complainant is not interested to prosecute the case. Hence, case is dismissed for non prosecution.
