

Ex 140/2017

DHR and counsel for DHR called out absent. No representation.

Case again called out in the afternoon session. No representation from DHR and his counsel.

Steps against the JDR is not taken.

Order sheet reveals that inspite of giving sufficient opportunities the DHR has not taken effective steps as against the JDR so as to execute the decree.

No valid reasons are made out to grant further adjournments. Hence the petition is dismissed for default.
