

18 CS (COMM) 343/24
Idbi Bank Limited Vs. Anuj Kumar

26.02.2026

Present : Sh. Brij Kumar and Sh. Sachin, Ld. Counsels for the Plaintiff have appeared through VC.

Ms. Ira Aggarwal, Manager of Plaintiff Bank has also joined the proceedings as AR, however, her substitution application is not available on record and though it has been claimed that same has been E-filed, however, no physical copy has been placed on record till date. Hence, citing her as AR of the Plaintiff Bank at this stage amounts to an attempt on behalf of Ld. Counsels to mislead the Court for which Plaintiff is burdened with a cost of Rs. 5,000/- to be deposited with the Prime Minister's National Relief Fund.

Since the proposed AR is stated to be busy in some official work today, hence, unable to appear before the Court for her substitution as well as recording of evidence.

Accordingly, matter is now adjourned for Plaintiff's evidence on 11.05.2026.

At this stage at 12:30 PM:-

Present :- Sh. Kunal Kumar, Ld. Counsel for the Plaintiff has appeared in person and filed an application for waiver of cost as imposed at the first call.

It has been stated in the application that an application seeking substitution of AR was E-filed on 24.02.2026, which is also reflected in the Court record but the same could not be filed physically before the Court. Hence, there was no attempt on the part of Plaintiff to make any kind of false submission before the Court.

However, It is very clear from the ordersheet that the cost was not imposed upon the Plaintiff for not filing of the application rather for mis-representing the proposed AR as the current AR of the Plaintiff.

Hence, no ground for waiver of cost is made out as the same is frivolous and dismissed with further cost of Rs. 2,000/- to be deposited with Prime Minister's National Relief Fund.

Put up on date already fixed.
