

Order below Adjournment Application Exh. 27

Perused application. Heard Ld advocate of complainant. Adjournment application moved stating the complainant is unable to attend the Court due to unavoidable business commitments requiring his travel outside the city. In support of his contention, he has produced photocopy of traveling ticket from Mumbai to Chandigarh which of dated 19.07.2026. Today's date is 23.07.2026 therefore, this ticket is not substantiate to validate his ground. This apart, the complainant has not stated to return journey and produced the document of his business commitments. Undisputedly, the matter is one of the year 2019. This Court, was earlier directed him to appear before this Court and proceed with the evidence. Despite that, he did not turn in the matter. Neither he shown ground of his previous absence on the scheduled date nor moved any adjournment application. Thus, this conduct of complainant appears to be unjustifiable and unacceptable to grant this application. Considering default conduct of complainant on earlier dates and for want of justifiable ground for today's absence, his adjournment application is hereby rejected. Accordingly, consequent order is passed below Exh.1.

Date - 23.07.2026
