PARVINDER KUMAR Vs. NEETU NANDA

30.07.2026

Present: Ms. Shagun Verma, Ld. Proxy Counsel for appellant.
Respondent no. 1 in person.
Sh. M.H. Panwar, Ld. Counsel for respondent no. 2 alongwith respondent no. 2.

Adjournment is sought on the ground that Ld. Counsel for appellant is held up due to some personal difficulty. Ld. Counsel for respondent no. 2 opposed the same and he also stated that respondent no. 2 is a Bailiff and he was impleaded in the present appeal without any necessity.

2. A query was raised whether he was a party in the suit, to which it is denied. Accordingly, the respondent no. 2 is at liberty to file an application for deletion of his name with advance copy to the opposite counsel or in the alternative, oral arguments can be addressed.

3. Put up for arguments on 27.08.2026.
