

AD-INTERIM INJUNCTION ORDER

The suit is filed by the plaintiff for the relief of partition and separate possession of her 1/2 share in the suit schedule property. Along with the suit I.A.I is filed for temporary injunction.

The learned counsel for the plaintiff argued to grant ad-interim temporary injunction against the defendant restraining him from alienating application schedule property till disposal of the suit. The learned counsel further argued that, in case the defendant alienates the schedule property, the plaintiff would suffer irreparable injuries.

Ad-interim temporary injunction can be granted in extreme circumstances if plaintiff able to prove the very necessity to grant such order. Suppose if the property is alienated before adjudication of the matter, it would definitely cause injustice to the plaintiff because her valuable right over the properties if any will be spoiled if alienation is made. Therefore, the subject matter of the suit schedule property is to be kept intact. Therefore, the following:

ORDER

Issue ad-interim temporary injunction against the defendant preventing him not to alienate the application schedule property till the next date of order, if the plaintiff complied the Order XXXIX rule 3(a) of CPC.

Issue suit summons and notice of IA No.I to the defendant, if PF is paid. Call on
