Learned Advocate for the plaintiff moves the application for temporary injunction along with a prayer for ad-interim injunction to the same effect against the defendants.

Issue notice upon the defendants/opposite parties asking them to show cause within 10 days from the date of receipt of the same as to why the temporary injunction shall not be granted against them as sought for by the plaintiff/petitioner.

No caveat as reported by the Sheristadar. Perused the plaint, application for temporary injunction, documents, affidavit et cetera.

Having considered the submission of the learned Lawyer for the plaintiff and also having considered the materials on record and balance of convenience and/or inconvenience as well as the urgency it seems to me that the plaintiff have a good prima facie case to go into trial, and accordingly, I think it is a fit case for restraining the defendants and their men and agents from causing interference in the peaceful acts of possession of the plaintiff and forbidding them from encroaching any portion of the suit property forcibly.

Hence, it is

that the prayer for an order of ad-interim injunction is allowed but in part;
that the defendants and their men and agents are hereby restrained from causing interference in the peaceful acts and possession of the plaintiff and forbidding them from encroaching any portion of the suit property forcibly till 20.01.2023.

The plaintiff to comply with the provisions of Order 39 Rule 3(a) & (b) of the CPC with promptitude. Plaintiff to file requisites, at once.

To 20.01.2023 for

- i) SR, AD and PR.
- ii) Filing WO, if any.
- iii) Hearing of the application for injunction.
