

Case called before the Lok-
Adalath

The petitioners and respondents have filed joint compromise petition U/o 23 Rule 3 of C.P.C., stating that, they have compromised the case on mutual discussion.

The contents of compromise petition are read over and explained to the both the parties in their language and they accepted the same as true and correct.

This is a petition for Division of property in terms of preliminary decree passed in OS No.671/2014. On perusal of the compromise petition, it transpires that, the petitioners and respondents intend to compromise the matter in terms of the compromise petition. On perusal of entire material on record, this Court is satisfied that, the compromise petition is in accordance with law and it is not against public policy. The same can be accepted. Hence, this court proceed to pass the following.-

ORDER

The compromise petition filed by the petitioners and respondents U/o 23 Rule 3 of C.P.C., is hereby accepted.

Draw final decree as per compromise petition.

The compromise petition shall part and parcel of final decree.

Sd/-

Advocate Conciliator

Sd/-

Judicial Conciliator