

The complainant and accused No.1 to 3 are present.

A4 is absent. EP filed, perused and allowed,

The complainant and accused persons have filed Applications U/s.320(1) and (2) of Cr.PC seeking permission to compound the offences. The complainant has voluntarily agreed to compound the offences and filed the above applications without any threat or coercion. The prayer of learned A.P.P. appears to be voluntary. The alleged offences leveled against the accused persons are compoundable in nature. The complainant submitted that he has settled the matter amicably with the accused persons and he does not want to prosecute accused persons any further. In view of fact that the complainant has expressed that he does not want to prosecute the accused persons any further, owing to the compromise, which he has entered into, it would be absolutely futile exercise to burden upon the litigants and parties to this case to face the trial and that to which have no logical conclusion and if would be absolutely a exercise of futility.

It is pertinent to note here that offences punishable under sections 341, 323, 504, 506, 114 R/w 34 of IPC are compoundable in nature under the scheme of section 320 of Cr.PC. Accordingly, this bench proceed to pass the following.

ORDER

1) Application filed by the CW1 is hereby allowed. CW1 and accused persons are permitted to compound the offences.

2) In view of compromise, accused persons are acquitted and he is set at liberty forthwith. Their bail bonds and surety bond stands canceled.

Consequently, case is closed.

Sd/-

PCJ & JMFC., N'gud