Called before Lok Adalath on 14.03.2026

Both parties have already filed compromise petition and also accepted its. The plaintiffs have filed the of partition and separate possession of the suit schedule properties. As per the RTCs and demand register extract produced by plaintiff the suit properties are in the names of plaintiff, defendants and Late Nanjegowda who is the D1. So the properties are the joint family properties of plaintiff and defendants. The compromise petition is in accordance with law. Accordingly compromise petition is allowed. Suit is decreed in terms of compromise.

Draw final decree as per compromise.
