Learned counsel for the accused No.1 to 3 have filed an application U/Sec.436 of Cr.P.C. seeking bail to the accused No.1 to 3.

2. It is stated in the bail application that, accused No.1 to 3 have not committed any offence as alleged against them. They are innocent persons, law abiding and peace loving citizens. Further stated that, accused No.1 to 3 are ready to obey the conditions imposed by the Court and ready to present before the Court on all the dates of hearing without any fail and also ready to furnish surety for the satisfaction of the Court, if they are released on bail. If the accused No.1 to 3 are not released on bail, they will be put to untold hardship and inconvenience. Hence, prays to allow the bail application and release the accused No.1 to 3.

3. Learned A.P.P. has orally objected to the above bail application.

4. Heard on both sides and perused the materials on record.

5. The point for consideration is:-

Whether the bail application filed by the accused No.1 to 3 U/Sec.436 of Cr.P.C. deserves to be allowed? If so, what order?

6. The answer to the above point is in the Affirmative, for the following:-

:: R E A S O N S ::

7. The final report has been filed against the accused No.1 to 3 for the offences punishable under Section 506, 341, 323, 114 R/w Section 34 of I.P.C.

8. It is pertinent to note that, the Talakadu Police has registered the case against the accused No.1 to 3 for the offences punishable under Section 506, 341, 323, 114 R/w Section 34 of I.P.C., the said offences are bailable in nature and not punishable either death or life imprisonment. Moreover, this offence is triable by the Court of J.M.F.C. Such being the case, if the accused No.1 to 3 are not enlarged on bail and if they are detained in custody, no purpose will be met. Further, the accusation of the accused No.1 to 3 are to be established only after trial. Hence, it is not just to detain the accused No.1 to 3 till the conclusion of the trial rather enlarge them on bail. The Hon'ble Apex Court held that, the bail is a rule jail is an exception. Hence, it is not necessary to detain the accused No.1 to 3 till the conclusion of trial.

If the accused No.1 to 3 are enlarged on bail by imposing necessary conditions, the apprehension of the prosecution will be met. Hence, I am of the opinion that, the application filed by learned counsel for the accused No.1 to 3 under Section 436 of Cr.P.C. deserves to be allowed.
