

ORDERS ON BAIL APPLICATION UNDER SECTION 437 OF CR.P.C

The counsel for the accused has filed this application seeking regular bail in the above case for the alleged offences punishable under sections 326 and 504 of I.P.C.

2. It is submitted that the complainant police have filed the case against the accused for the offences punishable under sections 326 and 504 of I.P.C. It is further submitted that, the accused has not committed any offences as alleged against him, he is innocent and law abiding citizen and only earning member of his family. Though the alleged offences are non-bailable in nature but triable by this Court and not punishable with death or life imprisonment. The accused undertakes that, he is ready and willing to abide by the conditions that may be imposed by this court and appear before this court on all the dates of hearing without fail. He is ready and willing to offer surety for his release and abide by any reasonable conditions which might be imposed on him while at the time of granting bail.

3. The learned APP has filed objections to the said application contending that, the alleged offences punishable under Sections 326 and 504 of I.P.C. are non-bailable in nature and the grounds of bail set forth in the application are devoid of merits. Further, if accused is released on bail, he may abscond, may threaten prosecution witnesses and also protract the trial and may commit similar offence in future. It is also refuted that, he is politically influenced and economically sound. On perusal of prosecution materials prima-facie establishes the commission of offence by the accused. Hence, considering the facts and circumstances has prayed to reject the application.

4. Heard and perused the materials on record.

5. The following point that arises for my consideration:

“ Whether the accused is entitled for bail? ”

6. My finding to the point is in the “Affirmative”, for the following ;

REASONS

7. It is seen from the records that the offences alleged against the accused is under sections 326 and 504 of I.P.C. which are non-bailable in nature but triable by this Court. The offences are neither punishable with imprisonment for life nor with death. The accused is ready and willing to offer surety for his release and he is ready to abide by any reasonable conditions imposed on him.

8. The apprehension of learned APP can be met out by imposing stringent conditions while granting bail.

9. Hence under the facts, circumstances and merits of the case, I am of the considered view and opinion that the accused is entitled to be enlarged on bail. Accordingly, I have answered above point in the Affirmative and proceed to pass the following ;

ORDER

The bail application filed by the accused under Sec.437 of Cr.P.C. is hereby allowed subject to following:-
