

ORDER

The plaintiffs have filed this suit against the defendants for the relief of Permanent Injunction and also filed IA.No.II under Order XXXIX Rule 1 and 2 R/W Section 151 of C.P.C seeking an Ad-Interim Exparte Temporary Injunction order, restraining the defendants, their agents, servants or any body acting on their behalf from interfering with the plaintiff's peaceful possession, cultivation and enjoyment of the suit schedule properties.

In the affidavit accompanying the said application sworn in by the plaintiff No.1 it is submitted that, the suit schedule properties are the joint family and self-acquired properties of plaintiffs who cultivating the same and all the records stands in the name of the plaintiffs. The defendants having no manner of right, title and interest over the suit schedule properties are trying to interfere with the plaintiffs' peaceful possession and enjoyment of the suit schedule properties. In spite of panchayath held between the plaintiffs and defendants the defendants failed to adhere to the advise of the panchayathdars and on 31.01.2022 at about 10.00 am., obstructed the plaintiffs in carrying out agricultural work. It is submitted that, the illegal acts of the defendants were resisted by the plaintiffs with the help of neighborers, wherein the defendants warning the plaintiff that they cut and remove the sugarcane crop grown in the suit schedule properties. Since the plaintiffs have apprehension that the defendants might have again interfere with the plaintiffs' peaceful possession and enjoyment over the suit schedule properties the present suit has been filed. Hence, prayed to allow the application.

On careful perusal of entire documents available on record. The plaintiffs have produced the RTC Extracts pertaining to the suit schedule properties. So also the photographs. At this juncture the contentions of the plaintiffs does not inspire the confidence of this court for granting Ad-Interim Exparte Temporary Injunction order as prayed. Accordingly, I proceed to pass the following ;
