

Case advanced.

Plaintiff No.1 to 3 and defendant No.1 and 2 present. Their respective counsels present. Both counsels filed compromise petition under order 23 rule 3 of CPC along with copies of Aadhar cards of the parties bearing numbers as follows;

Aadhar numbers

Plaintiff 1: 6093 9981 5884

Plaintiff 2: 3431 3749 6878

Plaintiff 3: 6425 1771 2737

Defendant 1: 4508 1403 9551

Defendant 2: 5248 5961 2892

Plaintiff No.1 to 3 and defendant No.1 and 2 and their respective counsels have signed the compromise petition.

Heard on compromise petition by both sides.

The contents of compromise petition are read over to both the parties. The parties voluntarily admitted the contents of compromise petition. The settlement appears to be just and fair in the interest of both parties and the above said terms of compromise are not against the terms of public policy.

Perused the compromise petition filed by the plaintiff No.1 to 3 and defendant No.1 and 2. Both parties have admitted the contents of the compromise petition. Hence, I proceed to pass the following;

ORDER

The compromise petition filed by the plaintiff No.1 to 3 and defendant No.1 and 2 is allowed.

Accordingly, suit of the plaintiff No.1 to 3 is decreed in terms of compromise petition.

Draw decree in terms of compromise petition.

Compromise petition is part and parcel of the decree.

Prl. Sr. CJ & CJM, Raichur