JUDGMENT

The petitioner filed this petition U/Sec.13(ia) (ib) of Hindu Marriage Act 1955, seeking dissolution of marriage, which was taken place 04.04.2024.

2. The petitioner contended that the petitioner and respondent are the husband and wife and their marriage taken place on 04.04.2024 at Thinthani Mouneshwara temple, Thinthani village, Tq: Surpur, Dist: Yadgir as per the customs prevailing in their community and the marriage was performed in accordance with Hindu Customs. After the marriage on the next day itself the respondent went to their perantal house and did not return to the house of the petitioner to lead the marital life with petitioner. Panchayath also held but respondent refuse to join the company of the petitioner. Due to the same the mother of the petitioner was dead and now the father of the petitioner is age old. Due to the said incident family of the petitioner is under mental shock. On 13.08.2025 issued the legal notice but she did not replied the said notice. Hence without any remady the petitioner filed this petition.

3. After institution of the petition the notice issued to the respondent. The respondent appeared through counsel and filed the objection. In the objection the respondent admitted the para no.2 to 5 of the petition and allegations were denied and after contended that she has received Rs.7,00,000/- and 05 tola gold ornaments towards life time maintenance from the petitioner. Hence with these set of contentions prays to allow the petition.

4. To prove the case the petitioner entered into witness box examined himself as PW.1 and produced 01 document which is marked as Ex.P.1 and closed the side. On the other hand the respondent entered into witness box examined as RW-1 and closed the side.

5. Heard the both side.

6. In view of the contentions of the parties the following points arise for my consideration:

POINTS

1. Whether petitioner is entitled the relief as sought in the petition ?
2. What order or decree?
7. My findings for the above points are as under:
Point No.1 : In the affirmative
Point No.2 : As per final order for the following;

R E A S O N S

8. Point No.1:- The petitioner filed this petition U/Sec.13(ia) and (iib) of Hindu Marriage Act 1955 for divorce against the respondent. The petitioner contended that the petitioner and respondent are the husband and wife and their marriage taken place on 04.04.2024 at Thinthani Mouneshwara temple, Thinthani village, Tq: Surpur, Dist: Yadgir as per the customs prevailing in their community and the marriage was performed in accordance with Hindu Customs. After the marriage on the next day itself the respondent went to their perantal house and did not return to the house of the petitioner to lead the marital life with petitioner. Panchayath also held but respondent refuse to join the company of the petitioner. Due to the same the mother of the petitioner was dead and now the father of the petitioner is age old. Due to the said incident family of the petitioner is under mental shock. On 13.08.2025 issued the legal notice but she did not replied the said notice.

9. To prove the case the petitioner entered into witness box examined himself as PW.1 and produced 01 documents which is marked as Ex.P.1 and closed the side. The Ex.P.1 is the Marriage invitation card. On the other hand the respondent entered into witness box examined as RW-1.

10. After considering the material the petitioner filed this petition for divorce as the respondent not lead the marital life with the petitioner. Further contended that after the marriage on the next day itself the respondent went to the house of her parents and she did not return to lead the marital life. The petitioner also issued legal notice but the respondent did not replied the said notice and also did not joined the company of the petitioner. The respondent in the objection contended that she has taken permanent alimony of Rs.7,00,000/- and 05 tola gold from the petitioner and also submitted that she has no objection to decree the divorce petition. Hence considering the material this court is of the opinion that the petitioner is entitle the relief of divorce. Hence this court answered the point No.1 in the affirmative.

11. Point No.2: For the reason stated in the point no.1 above this court proceed to pass the following;

O R D E R

The petition filed by the petitioner U/Sec.13(ia) and (ib) of Hindu Marriage Act 1955 is hereby allowed.
