

The plaintiff and defendants present. Advocate for plaintiff and defendants are present.

Both the parties have filed compromise application U/O.23 Rule 3 of CPC. Copies of Adhar cards of both the parties. Further both the parties have submitted that, as per compromise application they have taken possession of suit properties. Further the defendant No.5

relinquished her right in favour of defeated No.3 & 4 as they have agreed to perform her marriage. The contents of compromise application read over to both the parties in Kannada language, they admitted the same. Hence the compromise application filed U/O.23 Rule 3 of CPC is hereby allowed.

In view of compromise between the parties, suit of the plaintiff is decreed without cost.

Draw final decree as per compromise application.

Office is directed to give intimation to Tahashildar, Byadagi to make entries in Revenue and Survey records of the parties as per compromise.

Senior Civil Judge & JMFC.,
Byadagi.