PS BIH DAIRY
FIR NO. 677/2025
STATE V/S HEMANT 17-01-2026

07.01.2026

Present: None for the State.
Sh. Aashutosh Ahuja, Ld. Counsel for the applicant/accused.

Part arguments on the application on behalf of the applicant for non compliance of Section 52A NDPS Act heard.

Ld. Counsel for the applicant has relied upon several judgments for seeking concession of regular bail in this matter. However, there is no representation on behalf of the State.

Let a notice be issued to State/IO to argue the application specifically qua non compliance of Section 52A NDPS Act on 09.01.2026.

Let a copy of this order be sent to the Director Prosecution for bringing into his notice that no substitute Addl. PP for the State has been provided in the court, due to which, arguments on behalf of the State could not be heard, which is unnecessarily delaying the matters and wasting the precious time of this court.

Director Prosecution is directed to take appropriate steps that such a practice should not be adopted in future.

Copy of this order be sent to the Home Secretary.
