State Vs. Satish
FIR No. 267/2021
PS KNK Marg
U/s 302 IPC & 27Arms Act

11.03.2026

This is an application under Section 483 BNSS for extension of interim bail, moved on behalf of applicant/ accused Satish Present: Dr. Sarita Rani, Ld. Addl. PP for the State.

Sh. Gajraj Singh, Id. Counsel for the applicant/ accused.

1. It is argued by Id. Counsel for the applicant/accused that though, wife of the applicant/accused had been discharged from the hospital on 08.03.2026, however, she has been advised bed rest for at least 15 days, hence, it is prayed that interim bail granted to the applicant/accused kindly be extended for at least 15 days from today.

2. Ld. Additional PP for the State vehemently opposed the bail application as presence of the applicant/accused is not essential. It is prayed that application for extension interim bail may be dismissed.

3. Arguments heard. Record perused.

4. From the medical documents attached with the instant application, it is evident that wife of the applicant/accused has already been discharged from the hospital on 08.03.2026 but it is nowhere mentioned that she has been advised bed rest for 15 days. In view of the same, no ground for extension of interim bail is made out and as such the allegations against the applicant in the present case are of grave and serious nature i.e. for the offence under Section 302/34 IPC. The present application stands disposed off being dismissed.

5. Copy of the order be given dasti to the wife of the for the applicant/accused as well as be sent to concerned IO, concerned Jail Superintendent, Ld. Secretary, DLSA (North), through all possible modes, as per rules.
