

Present: Sh. Ashwani Sharma Adv. for complainant.

Office report perused. RC received and attached with the judicial file. Period of 30 days has already elapsed but accused has not come present before the court. The court is satisfied that accused despite having knowledge of the pendency of the present case, accused is intentionally avoiding the service in the court and not appearing in the court. Legislature has contemplated that trial of offence u/s 138 N.I.Act is to be completed within period of six months. Presence of accused cannot be procured despite issuance of process. Accordingly, court is satisfied that accused cannot be served through ordinary process and coercive steps are to be taken to procure presence of the accused. As such, accused is ordered to be served throughailable warrants in the sum of Rs. 5000/- with one surety in the like amount for 17.10.2026 through concerned commissioner of police/ SHO.
