Duly Sworn on: 20.06.2022.

P.W.9 C.W.11

Name : Dr.Rashmi
Husband name : Prabhakar
Age : 45 years
Occupation : Medical officer, PHC, Vijayapura,
Bangalore Rural
Residence : Bangalore

Examination-in-Chief: By Public Prosecutor:

From 2012 to 2016 I was working as medical officer at PHC, Kudur.

2. On 20.12.2014 one injured viz.Rajanna S/o.Krishnappa had come before me with the history of assault. I was on duty on that day from 9.30 AM to 4.30 PM.

3. On 20.12.2014 on the request of the police, I sucked the blood of one Rajanna and subjected the blood for examination and I found it was of blood group of O positive. Accordingly I gave report. Same is marked at Ex.P.9, signature of witness is marked at Exs.P.9(a).

Cross-Examination: By Sri. MDK Advocate for accused:

4. It is true to suggest that, there is OPD section in the said hospital. Any patient who comes to hospital should be get OPD slip. In a certificate issued by Hospital should bear OPD number. It is true to suggest that, there is no OPD number in Ex.P.9. I do not know age of said Rajanna.

5. The police have made a requisition to report about the blood group of said Rajanna. I do not remember the date of requisition. I handed over the same report to police. If the any report is issued to the police who usually get an acknowledgement or endorsement. I have not received any endorsement or acknowledgement from the police.

6. The PHC is at the distance of 100 mtrs from police station. It is true to suggest that, the police often and often used to come to hospital. The staff at Laboratory Section receive the blood and check it. The staff used to give report. Only one staff is there in lab section. I have not verified the blood group of Rajanna.

7. It is false to suggest that, the said Rajanna had not come to hospital nor I checked the blood group and give report to the police. It is false to suggest that, at the instance of the police I issued false report.

Re-Examination: Nil

(Computerized to my dictation in the open court as deposed by the witness.)
