

ORDERS ON I.A. NO.I

IA No.I filed U/O 39 Rule 1 and 2 of CPC seeking for grant of exparte Temporary injunction against defendant No.2.

Heard, perused the plaint. I.A. No.I its enclosed affidavit and documents produced by plaintiff.

The plaintiff has made out prima-facie case for grant of exparte ad-interim injunction.

If notice on I.A. No.I is ordered, it would be defeat the very object of grounding the ex-party injunction by delay.

There is allegation that defendant No.2 is trying to alienating, encumbering or creating 3rd party right over the suit schedule property. Hence due to urgency, notice of I.A. No.I is dispensed with.

Ad interim ex-party injunction is granted in favour of plaintiff by restraining the defendant No.2, her agents, servants, etc., from alienating and create encumbering the suit schedule property till appearance of the defendant No.2.

The plaintiff shall comply orders-39 Rule 3A of CPC and shall furnish sufficient Process Fee.

Office is directed that copy of order shall not be issued to any one including the plaintiff, until plaintiff complies with Order 39 Rule 3A of CPC.

It is made clear that, this order shall automatically stand vacated, in case of plaintiff does not comply the provisions of Orders 39 Rule 3A of CPC strictly and does not furnish sufficient process fees and copies of IA.

Issue summons to defendants and notice to defendant No.2 on IA No.I and TI order through court.
