

ORDERS ON IA.NO.6

The learned counsel for the plaintiff has filed IA.No.6 U/o 6 Rule 17 R/w Section 151 of CPC with a prayer to permit the plaintiff to amend the plaint by adding prayer as sought in the application.

The learned counsel for the defendant Nos.1 and 7 orally objected to the present application and prayed to dismiss the same as the same is not maintainable at this stage.

Heard on I.A.No.6.

Perused the contents of affidavit annexed to the present application and documents and also plaint averments.

Admittedly the plaintiff has filed the present suit against the defendants for the relief of permanent injunction in respect of suit schedule properties. Since the plaintiff has approached the court with some relieves as such, it is on the plaintiff to plead and prove all the pleadings on which she is claiming the relieves. The plaintiff is intending to add additional prayer in the plaint in continuation to her existing reliefs.

I have perused the averments of the plaint, application and documents. The burden to prove the description of the suit schedule properties and other pleadings is upon the plaintiff. While allowing this application, no harm or injury would be caused to the defendants and it will not amount to retraction of any admissions. Under such circumstances, the proposed amendment will not cause any prejudice to the defendants as they will get every opportunity to cross examine the plaintiff in this regard as well. The nature of the suit will not be changed by virtue of proposed amendment. Hence, viewed from any angle, plaintiff has made out grounds for allowing the application. By considering the facts and circumstances of case. I proceed to pass the following :
