

The learned counsel for the plaintiffs is present and submits that he had already submitted no objections to allow I.A.Nos. 4 and 5 and requested the court to pass orders on I.A.Nos.4 and 5.

Heard both the parties on I.A.Nos. 4 and 5.

Posted for orders.

COMMON ORDERS ON I.A.
NOS.4 AND 5

The applicants/proposed defendants have filed I.A Nos.4 and 5 Under Order I Rule 10(2) R/w section 151 of CPC along with Vakalath Naama with a prayer to implead the proposed defendants as defendant Nos.3 and 4 in the present suit as they are also necessary parties to the suit.

The learned counsel for the plaintiffs has submitted that he has no objections to allow the present applications.

Heard and perused the records available on file.

It is pertinent to note that, the suit schedule property is the ancestral property of the proposed defendants and they are also one of the family members as such they are also the necessary parties to the present suit.

I have carefully gone through the affidavit and contents of plaint. There is no dispute that the proposed defendants are the joint family members as the plaintiffs have not disputed the said fact and not even opposed to the present application. In view of the submission of the learned counsel for the plaintiffs, this court do not find any reasons to reject the present applications. By considering the nature of the suit, submission of the plaintiffs' counsel, facts and circumstances of case, this court proceeds to pass the following :

ORDER

I.A Nos.4 and 5 filed Under Order I Rule 10(2) R/w section 151 of CPC by the applicants/proposed defendants is hereby allowed.

The proposed defendants are brought on record as defendant Nos.3 and 4.

The plaintiff shall amend the plaint and furnish amended plaint in this regard.

Call on 06.12.2024.
