

Case called out before lok-adalath.

Plaintiff and Defendant are present. Both the counsels appearing for plaintiff and defendants are present.

The Plaintiff, Defendant on their respective counsels files the joint compromise petition. The parties hereto has filed the compromise petition along with the copy of their aadhar cards in lieu of their identification. The original aadhar cards to returned back to the parties after due verification.

On verification the parties hereto submit that they have entered into the compromise and they intend to settle the aforesaid matter as per the terms of settlement mentioned in joint compromise petition. The parties further submits that they have come here out of their own freewill and volition.

I have perused the joint compromise petition filed. I have also perused the copy of the sale deeds pertaining to the suit schedule properties along with the RTC's, Agreement of sale, E.C. Mutation register Extracts. The documents pertaining to the suit schedule properties clearly reflect that the plaintiff and defendant have rights to compromise the matter. The compromise arrived at between the parties pertains to the suit schedule properties in the aforesaid suit.

Heard the counsels for plaintiff and defendant. On perusal of the joint compromise petition and its contents, the joint compromise petition appears to be lawful and hence the same is accepted.

Draw decree accordingly.

Return the court fees as per law.

Advocate Conciliator

Judicial Conciliator