

Misc. Case No. – 41 of 2026
Title Suit No. - 648 of 2025

Order No. 08, dated – 08-06-2026

Record is put up today on the prayer of petitioner.

The Ld Advocate for the petitioner submits that there is extreme urgency for moving the Local Inspection petition U/O 39 R 7 of C.P.C. filed on 04-06-2026.

Heard the Ld. Advocate for the petitioner. Perused the said petition. Considered.

On perusal of the same, it appears that this Court was pleased to pass an order of injunction on 31-10-2025 directing the plaintiffs and defendants to maintain status quo in respect of their respective physical possession, nature and character of the schedule property till 01-08-2026.

The main point of contention of the petitioners are that the defendants/O.P. being well aware of the fact deliberately and illegally violated the order of this Court. Hence finding no other alternative the petitioners have been compelled to file this case.

Considering the above mentioned fact and circumstances and to provide substantial justice to the parties and to bring the real picture of the locale before the Court, the prayer for local inspection is allowed. According to this Court local inspection commissioner is quite vital and necessary.

Let Snehasish Das Mondal the Ld Advocate of this Court and Bar Association is hereby appointed as an Advocate Commissioner who will go to the locale after due service of notice to both the parties through their Ld Advocates on record and after observing all legal formalities from his part. Ld. commissioner will inspect the suit property in view of the questions as mentioned in the petition as well as in the writ and to submit his report by the next date fixed.

The petitioners are directed to pay commission fees of Rs. 3000/- to the Ld. commissioner.

The writ will be issued after submission of the money receipt issued by the Ld Commissioner.

To date (01-08-2026) for awaiting commissioner's report and S/R, A/D.
