

Case called out before Lokadalath.

Counsel appearing for the Plaintiff and Defendant no.1 to 3 are present.

The Plaintiff and the Defendant no.1 to 3 have jointly filed a Compromise Petition under O.XXIII Rule 3 of CPC seeking to compromise the suit.

In the said IA, it is stated that, as per the advice of the well-wishers, they have arrived at a compromise as per the terms and conditions set out in the IA filed under O.XXIII and Rule 3 of CPC.

Heard and Perused the Application.

On perusal of the Compromise Petition, it is apparent that the parties have voluntarily arrived at a compromise as stated in the application. The Compromise is not affected by fraud, coercion, undue influence, or misrepresentation. The terms of the compromise are not against any law for the time being in force and not against the Public Policy. Hence, the Compromise Petition is accepted. Accordingly Following

ORDER

The compromise petition filed by Plaintiff and defendant no.1 to 3 U/o.23 rule 3 of CPC is hereby accepted and allowed.

The office is directed to draw a Compromise Decree in terms of the compromise petition.

In view of the compromise, the parties to bear their own cost.

Non-Judicial	Judicial Concilator
Conciliator	