

CASE TAKEN BEFORE LOK-ADALATH.

The Plaintiff and the Defendants along with their counsel have jointly filed the Compromise Application Under Order XXIII Rule 3 of CPC.

Upon enquiry the Plaintiff and the Defendants submitted that they have voluntarily compromised the said case as per the terms of the Compromise Petition without any force and fear.

Heard both parties and their counsel and perused the same.

The contents of the Compromise Petition read over and explained to the Plaintiff and the Defendants in kannada language. The Plaintiff and the Defendants submitted that they have voluntarily agreed to the terms of the Compromise Petition and further they admitted the contents of the Compromise Petition.

Upon going through the contents of the Compromise Petition filed Under Order XXIII Rule 3 of CPC it appears that there is no legal impediments to allow the parties to settle the dispute in terms of the Compromise Petition, which is not opposed to any public policy. Hence, proceed to pass the following:
