

The case was called out before the Lok Adalat.

The petitioner and the respondent along with their respective counsel are present.

Conciliation was held and the matter was amicably settled between the parties. As per the terms of the Joint Memo, the respondent has agreed to pay a sum of Rs. 25,000/- to the petitioner towards full and final settlement of the claim. The respondent has agreed to deposit the said amount within two months from the date of this award.

The compromise entered into between the parties is found to be lawful. Accordingly, the Joint Memo is accepted.

Hence, it is ordered that the respondent shall deposit the compensation amount of Rs. 25,000/- within two months from the date of this award, failing which the said amount shall carry interest at the rate of 6% per annum from the date of default until realization.

On deposit of the amount, the entire compensation shall be released in favour of the petitioner through NEFT/RTGS after due identification and in accordance with law.

Draw the award accordingly.
