The petitioner/ aggrieved person files hazira.

Perused the materials on record.

Considered.

The petitioner tries to slap a case against O.P./ husband and further arraying some other persons that seems to be u/s 31 of PWDV Act and as such, this Court cannot take cognizance of it without examining the complainant/ aggrieved person on dock in terms of Section 32(2) of the PWDV Act. As such, I am inclined to fix the case for taking testimony of the complainant/ petitioner/ aggrieved person in the backdrop of her allegation featured out in the complaint lodged.
