

Order on exparte Interim maintenance application filed by the petitioner against the respondent No.1 U/Sec. 23(2) of Protection of Women from Domestic Violence Act. 2005.

Perused, the records before the court on going through the petition averments, it is a case of the petitioner that she is legally wedded wife of respondent No.1. The respondents without their being sufficient cause neglected the petitioner, now the petitioner is residing in her parents house. Further at the time of marriage between the petitioner and respondent No.1 the parents of petitioner spent more then Rs. 5,00,000/- and their marriage was registered before the registering office. Now the petitioner unable to maintain herself. The respondent No.1 having sufficient income. On these grounds it is prayed by the petitioner to grant exparte interim maintenance in the petition.

On perusal of petition averments Asserts and liabilities furnished by the petitioner, documents annexed to the same, it is prima-facie discloses that petitioner and respondent No.1 is legally married. Further the respondent is under obligation to maintain the petitioner. Further it is prima-facie shown that petitioner is unable to maintain herself. Hence, I proceed to pass the following:

ORDER

The petitioner is entitled for Rs.5,000/- per month from the respondent No.1 as interim maintenance from date of this order.

Issue Notice on petition and interim application to the respondents.

If necessary process is paid.

Call on 06.11.2025.

(RAJU K. SHEDBALKAR)

Prl. Civil Judge & JMFC.,
Soraba.