

FIR No.83 dated 21.06.2026

U/s 384, 385, 419, 420, 467, 468, 471, 506, 120-B IPC

PS: Sector 5, Panchkula

State Vs. Parmeshwari Deen Dayal & Anr.

Present: Naib Court assisted by S.I. Rishipal (investigating officer), P.S. Sector 5, Panchkula.

Accused Parmshwari Deen Dayal and Deepankar Dass in custody represented by Sh. Dishant Rishi, Advocate (POA filed today).

Accused Parmshwari Deen Dayal produced before me in custody in Camp Office being Duty Magistrate, after obtaining 5-days transit remand of from Ld. Chief Judicial Magistrate, North 24 Parganas, Barasat, Kolkata. Along-with said accused, co-accused Deepankar Dass also produced before me in custody. A request of police remand of eight & ten days of accused Parmshwari Deen Dayal and Deepankar Dass respectively has been made by the concerned investigating officer. Check list perused. Police file perused. Heard. In pursuance of disclosure statements suffered by the above named both the accused, the money received by the accused through fraudulent means is to be recovered from Kolkata, Pune and Bihar. Apart from that the co-accused of above named accused are also to be arrested. Disclosure statements of the accused, arrest memo, police zimini seen and signed and returned to IO. Contents of application carefully perused. Submissions considered. From the perusal of contents of application reveals, that the investigating agency has to take the accused to Kolkata, Pune and Bihar for recovering the fraudulent & cheated amount as well as for apprehending the co-accused. The distance between the State of Haryana and States of Kolkata, Bihar, Pune is approximately 1500 km approximately. Hence, keeping in view overall facts & circumstances including the distance between the different States as well as to aid the investigation, police is granted eight days police custody of the both the above named accused. Investigation Officer of the case is directed to get the accused medico-legally examined forthwith and also before producing him before the concerned Court on 05.07.2026. It is further directed that the Investigating Officer shall place on record, the DDR entry of the local police stations, where he will take the accused persons during police custody. Also, it is worthwhile to mention that I.O. shall also produce the accused persons before the concerned Court/Ld. Duty Magistrate forthwith, if they resile from their disclosure statements. A copy this order be also sent to Ld. Chief Judicial Magistrate, North 24 Parganas, Barasat, for information, please. File be sent back to the concerned Court forthwith.

27.06.2026

arvind

(Kirti Vashista)
Duty/ACJM, PKL.
UID No.HR-0339