

Case called out before Lok Adalath.

Counsel for plaintiff filed memo along with documents.

Sri.DKG advocate filed power for Defendant No.1,2,4 to 8, 10 to 15 and 18.

Both the parties and their respective counsel are present and files compromise petition U/Or.23 Rule 3 of CPC along with joint memo and identity cards of the parties. This is a suit for partition and separate possession.

Compromise petition has been duly read over and explained to both the parties in Kannada language known to them. Both the parties have admitted the contents of compromise petition and its execution. Further the parties submit that, the compromise petition is voluntarily and without any force or undue influence.

This court finds that the contents of the compromise petition is voluntarily made by the parties. Heard, the counsel. Hence, I proceed to following;

ORDER

Compromise petition filed U/Or.23 Rule 3 of CPC is hereby allowed.

Office to draw final decree in terms of compromise petition.

Compromise petition shall be part and parcel of decree.

Sd/-

Judicial Conciliator

sd/-

Non-Judicial Conciliator