The learned Public Prosecutor has raised strong objection to release the petitioner on bail by stating that, the complainant and the petitioner are neighbours and on 11.05.2026, the petitioner quarreled with his wife and she ran away from his house and the petitioner felt that she went to the complainant's house and knocked the door, quarreled with the complainant, spoke abusive words, attacked the complainant and her grand son with iron rod, threatened and went away and further stated that the injured was discharged from the hospital.

The petitioner is in judicial custody for the past 39 days. The injured person was discharged from the hospital. The learned Public Prosecutor has not raised any serious objection. Hence, considering the above facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions:
