BEFORE LOK-ADALATH

The complainant, Accused and their counsels are present. The learned counsels for the complainant has filed application Under Section 147 of NI Act, stating that, the matter is settled between the complainant and accused. Hence, complainant do not want to proceed with the case and prayed to close the case as withdrawn.

I have verified the contents of application tendered by the counsels which is duly signed by the complainant and counsel. On perusal of the petition reveals, that the complainant has signed the petition and the same has been identified by the counsel.

Heard learned counsel for the complainant. Perused the contents of compromise petition and the materials available on record.

The complainant registered the present case under Section 200 of CrPC., alleging that, the accused has committed the offence punishable under Section 138 of NI Act. Now the complainant has amicably settled the dispute. The complainant has been enquired as to settlement. The complainant has admitted the contents of the petition to be true and correct. On detailed enquiry with the parties and respective counsels, this court is of the view that, the parties have agreed for the settlement voluntarily and accordingly signed the petition. Therefore, this court is of the considered opinion that, the complainant and accused have settled the case and reduced the terms of settlement into writing as per petition. In view of the settlement between the parties, the complainant is hereby permitted to withdraw the case. Accordingly, I proceed to pass the following:

ORDER

The application filed by the complainant Under Section 147 of N.I. act is hereby allowed.

As per the terms and conditions of compromise, the complainant is hereby permitted to withdraw the complaint.

The accused shall comply with the terms and conditions of the compromise.

If the accused fails to comply with the terms and conditions of the compromise petition, the complainant is at liberty to initiate recovery proceedings as provided under law.

In view of settlement, the complaint against the accused is hereby withdrawn. The compromise petition shall be treated as part and parcel of this order.
