Fresh case received by way of transfer. It be checked & registered.

Present: Ld. Counsel for complainant

The present file has been received upon transfer pursuant to order bearing No.196-208/2025/CJM/PHC/ND dated 29.11.2025.

Matter was listed at the stage of issuance of notice to the proposed accused on the aspect of cognizance. However, in terms of the judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, said notice is not required to be issued in cases pertaining to complaint U/s 138 N.I.Act. Hence, the requirement of issuance of notice to proposed accused is dispensed with.

Perusal of record shows that cheque in question is drawn for a sum of Rs. 2,26,70,686.42, and the demand notice has been raised for the same amount. However, as per the ledger account statement filed by the complainant, there is some part payment prior to issuance of the legal demand notice. Ld. Counsel for complainant seeks an adjournment to argue on the maintainability of the present complaint.

Put up for arguments on 13.08.2026.
