

KATK810043432025

IN THE COURT OF THE PRL. CIVIL JUDGE & J.M.F.C., AT SIRA

O.S. 587/2025

D.D. 22.07.2026

Plaintiff:

V/s

Defendant:

Siddananjamma

Lakshamma

ORDERS

Sri. RRK Advocate filed vakalath for Defendant No. 1 to 5. Plaintiffs and defendants and their advocate present. They produced xerox copy of Aadhar card. They filed compromise petition U/o.23 Rule 3 of CPC. The parties to the suit submitted that as per their wish only they compromised the suit. The contents of the compromise petition read over to the both parties in the language known to them. As per compromise petition plaintiffs and defendants are agreed to divide the properties as shown in the compromise petition. Perused the compromise petition filed by both the parties. And they have agreed to the terms and conditions of the compromise petition. The terms and conditions of the compromise petition are not against to public policy and natural law. Therefore, there is no legal impediment to allow the compromise petition. Hence compromise Petition is accepted and suit of the plaintiff is decreed as per terms and conditions of compromise petition. Draw final decree according to the terms and conditions of compromise petition.

Sd/-

Prl. Civil Judge and J.M.F.C., Sira.