At 04:00 PM :

Matter is taken up again for Orders.

Present : Sh.Salil Maheshwari, Ld. Addl. PP for the State.

1. The Court has perused the record carefully.
2. It is argued by the Id. Counsel for the applicant/accused that accused is innocent and has been falsely implicated in the present case. The investigation of this case have already been completed and charge sheet has been filed. Nothing has been recovered from the possession of the applicant/accused. He is the only bread earner of his family. He has clean antecedents and if granted bail, he is ready and willing to abide by all the terms & conditions imposed by this Court.
3. Grant of bail is opposed by the Id. Addl. P.P. for the State on the ground that the accused is involved in grave and serious offence and if the applicant/accused is granted bail, there are chances that he may jump the bail or influence the prosecution witnesses or evade the process of law.
4. As per reply of the IO, one mobile phone make Redmi Note 11T Sky Blue Colour and one buttondar knife were recovered from the possession of the applicant/accused. He was apprehended red handed at the spot. He is habitual offender. He is residing in a rental house and there is no control of his family members upon him.

5. The IO has also filed the previous involvement report of the applicant/accused alongwith the reply, as per which the applicant/accused is also involved in various other cases of similar nature.

6. The Hon'ble Apex Court time and again has reiterated the factors to be borne in mind while considering an application for bail i.e. (i) whether there is any prima-facie or reasonable ground to believe that the accused had committed the offence; (ii) nature and gravity of the accusation; (iii) severity of the punishment in the event of conviction; (iv) danger of the accused absconding or fleeing, if released on bail; (v) character, behaviour, means, position and standing of the accused; (vi) likelihood of the offence being repeated; (vii) reasonable apprehension of the witnesses being influenced; and (viii) danger, of course, of justice being thwarted by granted of bail.

7. Keeping in view all the facts & circumstances of this case, the nature & gravity of offence alleged as well as considering the fact that one mobile phone and buttondar knife was recovered from the possession of the applicant/accused; he is habitual offender and also involved in various other cases of similar nature, this Court is not inclined to grant bail to the applicant/accused Shamim @ Bhole and hence, the same stands dismissed.

8. However, nothing expressed herein shall tantamount to have any expression of opinion upon the merits of the case.

9. Copy of this order be given dasti to Id. Counsel for the applicant/accused and the IO, as prayed for and be also sent to the concerned Jail Supdt. for intimation.

10. Application is accordingly disposed of.
