

Case called out.

Complainant and accused are called out absent.

No representation for both the side.

In spite of order process not paid continuously.

The complainant continuously remained absent and not taken steps.

The cheque amount involved in the case is Rs. 35,000/-.

Matter relates to year of 2016.

But the complainant has not taken any steps.

This shows that the complainant has no interest in prosecuting the case.

Under these circumstance, this court has no option but to dismiss the complaint.

Hence, invoking Sec. 256 of CrPC, I proceed to pass the following;

ORDER

Complaint is dismissed for non-prosecution.
