

Misc DJ No. 1259/26 in MACP No. 140/18
Neeru & Ors. Vs. Vipin Pandey & Ors.

12.08.2026

File taken up today on an application moved by applicant/petitioner no. 1 Smt. Niru seeking pre-mature encashment of her FDRs.

Present : Sh. Anoop Kumar Pandey, Ld. counsel for applicant/petitioner no. 1 with applicant.

Heard on the application. Record perused.

The applicant is seeking pre-mature encashment of her FDR on the ground that she requires a sum of Rs. 50,000/- for medical treatment of his husband. It is argued by Ld. Counsel for applicant that husband of applicant has suffered fracture and other injuries and she needs the aforesaid amount for the treatment of her husband. The applicant has also annexed copies of medical treatment record of her husband alongwith the present application.

Vide award dated 30.05.2018, an award for a total sum of Rs. 10,40,000/- was passed in favour of petitioners and against the respondent/insurance company. It may be noted here that vide aforesaid award, a sum of Rs. 7,00,000/- was granted to the applicant/petitioner no. 1 and out of her share amount, a sum of Rs. 75,000/- was directed to be immediately released to the applicant/petitioner no. 1 and remaining amount was directed to be kept in FDRs of Rs. 50,000/- each for a period of 1 year, 2 years, 3 years and so on and so forth.

Report regarding verification of medical documents of husband of applicant received as verified.

Taking into consideration the submissions made in the application, same is allowed. Accordingly, Manager, Union Bank of India, Mall Road, B-5, Model Town II, Delhi, is directed to release only a sum of Rs. 50,000/- to the applicant/petitioner no. 1 Smt. Niru out of her remaining compensation amount lying with the bank, on completing necessary formalities, as per rules. Application stands disposed of accordingly. Be tagged with main case file.

File be sent back to record room after necessary compliance.

Copy of this order be given dasti to applicant.
