

Case called out.

Accused absent EP filed same is allowed.

Complainant and advocate for complainant present.

Counsel for the complainant filed application under section 147 of N.I.Act stating that both parties amicably settled the matter out of the Court and complainant do not wants to proceed with the case and complaint may be dismissed.

Perused the contents of application and read over and explained to the complainant and he admitted the contents of the application.

On perusal of the material on the record it shows that the complainant has filed private complainant against the accused for the offence punishable under section 138 of N.I.Act. As per the contents of application, the complainant has compounded the offence. The offence alleged against accused is compoundable in nature. Accordingly, application is allowed. The accused is acquitted for the offence punishable under section 138 of N.I.Act.

Accordingly the case is closed.

Sd/-

Pri. Sr. C.J. & CJM, Karwar