

Case is taken on today's Lok Adalath board.

Plaintiff and defendant No.1 to 5 along with their counsel are present. Both parties filed joint memo by stating that plaintiff and defendant No.1 and 3 are brothers and sisters. The defendant No.4 and 5 are the children of plaintiff's deceased sisters. In order to keep the relationship and harmony in the family. The defendants have relinquished their rights in the suit schedule property in favour of the plaintiff's as a token of love. In view of the above said relinquishment, the plaintiff has become the absolute owner and in possession of the suit schedule property. The defendant No.1 to 5 are never claim any right in the suit schedule property any time in future. The conditions mentioned in the joint memo read over and explained to the plaintiff and defendants. They agreed the conditions mentioned in the joint memo. Hence, the joint memo is hereby accepted due to intervention of Lok Adalath. Both parties settled the dispute before the Lok Adalath. Hence, suit of the plaintiff are hereby decreed and draw final decree as per joint memo filed by the both the parties with part and parcel.

Sd/-

Non -Judicial Conciliator

Judicial Conciliator
Civil Judge, Ankola.

