

II ADDL. CIVIL JUDGE AND JMFC, MANGALUUR

O.S.1041/2022

Canara Bank Vs Florine Jacintha Dsouza

Case called out.

Manager of the plaintiff and their counsel present.

Defendant no.1 and counsel for the defendants present.

Counsel for the defendants no.1 to 2 files application under order 3 rule 1 of CPC along with GPA and copy of Aadhar card.

Heard.

In view of judgment in ILR 2015 KAR635 the application is allowed subject to legal implication.

Plaintiff, defendant no.1 and both counsels are jointly files compromise petition under order XXIII rule 3 r/w section 151 of CPC and stating that they have compromise the dispute in terms of compromise arrived in between the plaintiff and defendants.

The plaintiff and defendant no.1 and their counsels are duly signed and prays to decree the suit in terms of compromise petition.

Heard and perused the record and compromise petition.

The contents of the compromise petition is read over to the plaintiff and defendant no.1. They have understood the contents of the same. There is no minors in the present suit. This court is of the opinion that the parties have compromise the matter on their volition. There is no factual and legal inhibition to accept the compromise accordingly following:

ORDER

The compromise petition is accepted and suit of the plaintiff is hereby decreed in terms of compromise petition.

Compromise petition is part and parcel of the decree.

Draw decree accordingly.

No order as to costs.

Sd/-

II Additional Civil Judge & JMFC., Mangaluru