It is submitted by AR for the complainant that civil liability in the present matter has already been settled and he has no objection, in case present case is disposed off.

Reports Perused.

Arguments on the point of sentence heard.

It is submitted by the Ld. Counsel for convict that convict Rakesh is 42 years old man studied upto 9th class. He is doing the work of machine repair and earns Rs. 30,000/- per month. He lives with his wife, two sons and daughter. The economic condition of the family of convict is normal and he is victim of circumstances and deserves lenient view and as such he may be released on probation of good conduct.

Keeping in view the facts and circumstances of the case, report of SHO concerned filed on 25.10.2025 in which accused is not involved in any criminal case as well as report of probation officer filed on 25.10.2025 is satisfactory and the fact that the convict has already settled his civil liability especially keeping in view the economic financial condition of the convict and circumstances of the case, I am of the opinion that end of justice would be met, if the convict is given the benefit of Probation of Offender Act. Hence, convict Rakesh is given the benefit of section 3 of the Probation of Offenders Act, 1958 and due admonished accordingly.

Bail bond, if any, also stands canceled and surety, if any is discharged.

File be consigned to record room after due compliance.

Copy of this order be given dasti.
