

Case called out.

Accused No.1 and 7 are present.

Sri V.R.N., advocate filed for bail application U/Sec.437 of Cr.PC.

Learned APP filed objection to bail application U/Sec.437 of Cr.PC.

Heard both side counsels on bail application U/Sec.437 of Cr.PC.

ORDER ON BAIL APPLICATION UNDER SECTION 437 of Cr.PC., FILED ON BEHALF OF THE ACCUSED No.1 and 7.

In the bail application, it is averred that, accused persons are innocent persons and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the police officials. Further stated that, the offences alleged against the accused persons punishable U/Sections 143, 147, 447, 354, 323, 504, 506, 269, 270 R/w 149 of IPC. The said offence is triable by this court. Further contended that, alleged offence is non bailable offence but not punishable with death or imprisonment of life. Further, counsel for the accused persons submits that the accused persons are ready to obey any conditions impose by this court, hence, prays for allow the said application.

2. On the other hand, the learned A.P.P. has filed objection, wherein stated that accused persons committed offences punishable U/Sections 143, 147, 447, 354, 323, 504, 506, 269, 270 R/w 149 of IPC. Further this offence is non-bailable in nature. If this court grant the bail to the accused persons then they may chance to abscond and hamper and tamper the prosecution witness. Hence, prays to reject the bail application filed by the accused persons.

3. Heard the argument of both the counsels and perused the materials available on record.

4. The only point that arises for my consideration is:

1. Whether the accused persons are entitled for the bail?
2. What order?

5. My answer to the above points are as follows:

Point No.1: In the Affirmative.

Point No.2 : As per final order for the following:-

REASONS

6. Point No.1: This court has considered the above bail application along with the objection filed by the learned A.P.P. After perusal it reveals that the offence alleged against accused persons are punishable U/Sections 143, 147, 447, 354, 323, 504, 506, 269, 270 R/w 149 of IPC. Which are non-bailable in nature.

However, though the alleged offences are non bailable in nature, the same are not punishable with death or imprisonment of life. Further the said offences are triable by this Court only. The appearance of accused persons before the court can be secured without any hurdles.

The apprehensions of the prosecution can safeguarded by imposing suitable conditions. Moreover, police officials have already completed the investigation and filed charge sheet before the court.

On the other hand, the accused persons made out valid grounds for enlarging on bail. The grounds urged by the prosecution do not appear sufficient and satisfactory for denying the right of the accused persons to be enlarged on bail.

The accused persons are ready to offer surety for their release on bail and abide by the conditions which would be imposed on their. Hence, by imposing stringent conditions, the apprehension of prosecution would be safeguarded and as such, accused persons entitled for the bail. In the light of foregoing discussions, this court is opinion that the accused persons are entitled to be enlarged on bail. Hence, I answer point No.1 in the Affirmative.

7. Point No.2 :- As per the following:-

ORDER

The bail application filed by the counsel for the accused No.1 and 7 U/Sec. 437 of Cr.PC., is hereby allowed.

The accused persons are enlarged on bail on executing personal bond for sum of Rs.50,000/- each, with one surety for the like-sum with the following conditions:

1. The accused No.1 and 7 shall not tamper or terrorize the prosecution witnesses.
2. The accused No.1 and 7 shall not leave the jurisdiction of this court without prior permission.
3. The accused No.1 and 7 shall appear before the court on all adjourned dates.
4. The accused No.1 and 7 shall not commit any type of similar offenses.
