

Case called out.

ORDER ON I.A.No.VIII

The counsel for plaintiff has filed I.A.No. VIII U/o 7 rule 14 R/w Sec. 151 of C.P.C for seeking permission of this court to produce the documents.

2. In the accompanying affidavit of this application the plaintiff stated that, in order to prove the case, she is intending to produce the some documents before the court. Earlier, due to oversight she was not furnished the said documents. The said documents produced are very much necessary to proceed with the case. With these averments, the plaintiff has sought to allow the application.

3. On the other hand, the defendants have filed their objections & denied the averments of the application. It is further contended that, the documents furnished by the plaintiff are no concerned to this case. Further, plaintiff has filed this application at belated stage and without assigning proper sufficient reasons and the present application is not maintainable. Hence, prayed to reject the application.

4. Heard both side counsels and perused the materials on record.

5. On perusal of the application objections and documents and materials on record the present suit is filed by the plaintiff for seeking relief of declaration and partition.

6. On perusal of the material available on record, it appears that the plaintiff has filed this application to support his contentions by producing the above said documents. On perusal of the annexed documents, the said document are public documents.

7. Thus, for all the above reasons, since the plaintiff is only seeking production of the document, he can very well be permitted to produce the same and whether the documents are relevant or not for the purpose of the case and also whether it is admissible in evidence or not can be considered during the course of trial. Moreover, if the application is allowed, then the defendants will get an opportunity to cross examine the PW1. Hence, in the best interest of justice to avoid multiplicity of proceedings the plaintiffs are permitted to produce the said documents with subject to proof and relevancy. Hence I proceed to pass the following,

ORDER

The I.A.No. VIII filed by the plaintiff is hereby allowed with cost.

Hence list of documents taken on record.

For further chief of PW1 by 24-07-2025.
