

Kuldeep Vs. BDPCARD Bank

CRA/174/2022

Present: Appellant-convict on bail with Sh. Subhash Parjapat, Advocate.
Sh. Manoj Kumar, Advocate for respondent-complainant.

Parties arrived at mutual settlement in lump sum amount of Rs.58,000/- which has been received by the respondent-complainant and nothing left due against the appellant regarding the present cheque. Joint statement of parties qua full and final settlement, duly identified by their counsels, recorded separately. Further, miscellaneous application under section 138 NI Act for compounding offence filed by the appellant, with no objection of counsel for respondent-complainant along with compromise deed Mark-A. Arguments heard. Let, file be put up after lunch for pronouncement of order.

Dated : 20.02.2026

Tanu Rani, SG-II

Dr. Sanjeev Arya,
Additional Sessions Judge,
Bhiwani. UID No.HR0246

Present: Appellant-convict on bail with Sh. Subhash Parjapat, Advocate.
Sh. Manoj Kumar, Advocate for respondent-complainant.

File again put up after lunch. Order pronounced. Vide my separate detailed judgment, the offence punishable u/s 138 of NI Act, is hereby compounded subject to minimum cost of Rs.3,000/-{Three Thousand Rupees only} to be paid by appellant, in the account of DLSA, Bhiwani against receipt, today itself. Resultantly, impugned judgment of conviction and order of sentence are set aside, and appellant is acquitted from notice of accusation. Receipt of payment of cost in the account of DLSA Bhiwani is produced and placed on file. A copy of the judgment be placed on trial court's file for information. Trial court's record {TCR} be sent back, whereas appeal file be consigned.

Pronounced in open Court:

Dated : 20.02.2026

Tanu Rani, SG-II

(Dr. Sanjeev Arya)
Additional Sessions Judge,
Bhiwani. UID No.HR0246