

ORDERS ON I.A. NO.II

The Plaintiffs have filed this application Under order XXXIX rule 1 and 2 of CPC, against the defendants seeking to restrain them from interfering with the peaceful possession and enjoyment of the plaintiffs over the suit schedule property.

Heard, the counsel's arguments on IA No. II and perused the plaint and I.A. No. II and reasons stated in the annexed affidavit.

The application is supported with the affidavit of the plaintiff duly sworn and in support of the suit the plaintiff has also produced certain documents.

It is the case of the plaintiff that, Sri Ayappa Swamy Seva Trust is registered with respect to the temple is situated over the suit schedule property for more than 50 years. Such being the case the Defendants are trying to interfere with their possession and enjoyment over the suit schedule property.

Hence, the plaintiffs have filed the present application seeking to grant an Ex-parte temporary injunction to restrain the defendants from interfering with the peaceful possession of the plaintiffs over the suit schedule property.

Heard, the counsel's arguments on IA No. II and Perused the plaint averments as well as sworn affidavit of the plaintiff filed in support of I.A.No.II and also the documents produced by the plaintiff.

The suit is for perpetual prohibitory injunction. The documents produced by the plaintiffS prima-facie shows that, the Temple is in existence over the suit schedule property and the trust is in possession of the same. In the event, if the defendants are not restrained from interfering with the peaceful possession of the suit schedule property, the very purpose of suit would be defeated. Further, if the T.I. is not granted, it will be difficult for the plaintiffs to restrain the defendants. The main object of granting T.I is to preserve the subject matter intact till the conclusion of the trial. Hence, I am of the opinion that at this stage plaintiffs have made out a prima-facie case to grant an Ex-parte Temporary Injunction. Therefore, I proceed to pass the following:

ORDER

Issue ad-interim Ex-parte order of Temporary Injunction against the defendants, restraining the defendants, their henchmen and their agents from interfering with the possession and enjoyment of the plaintiffs over the suit schedule property, till filing of the written statement and objection to I.A. No II.

- b. The plaintiff shall comply with the mandate as provided U/o.XXXIX rule 3(a) of CPC.
- c. Issue certified copy of the order of T.I. after the compliance of the provisions U/o.XXXIX rule 3 (a) CPC by plaintiffs.

It is made clear that, in case the plaintiffs do not comply with the provisions of Order XXXIX Rule 3(a) of CPC, this order shall stand vacated automatically.

Issue summons to defendants and E/Notice on I.A.No.II to defendants if sufficient PF is paid.
