R. Selvasundari	...	Petitioner/Defendant.
	Vs
T. Vidhya	..	Respondent/Plaintiff.

This petition is coming on 31.10.2025 for final hearing before me in the presence of M/s. V. Kayalvizhi, Counsels appearing for the Petitioner and M/S. M.V. Seshachari, P. sathyanarayanan, Counsels for the respondent and upon hearing the arguments on both sides and upon perusal of records and having stood over the matter for consideration till this day, this court delivered the following

ORDER

Petition filed under s.151 C.P.C. to reopen the case and to receive additional written statement.

2. The learned counsel for the petitioner would contend as follows. The main suit is a partition suit filed by the plaintiff who is the daughter-in-law of the petitioner/defendant. The plaintiff filed a reply statement to the written statement filed by the defendant. The case was posted for additional written statement and was passed over. However, opportunity to file additional written statement was closed. Hence that the petition be allowed.

3. The learned counsel for the respondent would contend as follows. The petitioner was present on 12.06.2025 and sought for a pass over which was not granted. The reply statement was filed on 21.03.2025 and inspite of having three months time, the additional written statement was not filed. The present petition was filed with an intention to drag on the proceedings. Therefore, that the petition is allowed.

4. Upon hearing both sides and having perused the materials on record, this court finds as follows. The main suit is one for the relief of partition. After filing of the written statement, upon filing an application, the plaintiff filed a reply statement. Now, the present petition is filed to recieve additional written statement to counter the allegations in the reply statement. Considering the nature of the petition and in order to give an effective opportunity to the petitioner/defendant to contest the suit on merits, this court is inclined to allow this petition on payment of costs.

5. In result, this petition is allowed on condition that a sum of Rs.1,000/- be paid to the respondent/plaintiff on or before 27.11.2025. Call on 28.11.2025.
