

Case is called before Lok Adalath.

The plaintiff and defendant no.1 are present. The defendants no. 2 and 3 are represented by their mother/GPA holder i.e the defendant no.1. The respective counsel are present and identified the parties. The copies of Aadhar cards furnished. The plaintiff and the defendant no.1 filed joint memo and reported that they have amicably settled the matter for themselves and also on behalf of the defendants no.2 and 3. The contents of the compromise memo is read over to the parties in Kannada language. The parties have submitted that they have understood the contents of the same and they agree for settlement. Therefore, it appears that the compromise entered into between the parties is law ful and acceptable. Accordingly, the compromise petition filed under sec. 89 of CPC is accepted.

Office is directed to draw final decree in terms of the compromise petition. The compromise petition shall form the part and parcel of the final decree.

Sd/-

Non judicial Conciliator

Sd/-

Judicial Conciliator